2001 'will put fear of God in us,' psychic says

Anthony Carr foresees 'cataclysmic cosmic event' shocking world

BY CAROLA VYHNAK
TORONTO STAR

LOOK UP, way up. Toronto psychic Anthony Carr feels it, senses it coming. It is an imminent "cataclysmic cosmic event," advises Carr, who has been making a living telling people about his premonitions for 35 years.

"Watch for a sign in the heavens. It will shock the whole world. It could be like a bolt of lightning or in the form of a UFO — a mighty astronaut."

The event "will put the fear of God into us," predicts the east-end psychic and palmist who counts Hollywood stars among his clients.

"What I feel for the world is a great revelation, as if the entire population is coming to its collective senses. It's as though we realize we have to do something before it's too late."

That something, he continues, means we should "re-green the planet, unpollute the waters, feed the starving."

The revelation will herald a return to old-fashioned values in which more people marry and stay together, Carr predicts.

"The 'me' syndrome will be gone. We'll help each other and band together for protection and for the sake of survival of the human race."

Carr claims his share of success with his visions and premonitions. He predicted the death of Princess Diana, accusations of corruption and racketeering against former prime minister Brian Mulroney and also Bloc Québécois leader Lucien Bouchard's battle with flesh-eating disease.

In his own words: "Anthony Carr is so chillingly accurate that he has been hailed by reputable media persons as a modern-day Nostradamus."

The clairvoyant, who calls himself "the world's most documented psychic," has been in newspapers, tabloids and on radio and television programs.

"I go through all the newspapers, listen to the radio, watch movies. If a certain thing catches me, twigs me, I go with it."

He foresees events and experiences through a feeling, a vision or telepathy in which he picks up something from an individual "on the other side of the room or the other side of the world."

He picked up vibes from Scotland where Madonna married British filmmaker Guy Ritchie in an extravagant wedding on Dec. 22.

"This marriage is doomed," says Carr, who previously predicted motherhood (two children) for the superstar singer. "They're a Virgo and a Leo — forget it. I give them a couple of years. He'll want to rule the roost and she won't let him."

A few years ago, after coming out of a movie starring Arnold Schwarzenegger, Carr saw a large, cut-out figure of the actor in the lobby. Arnie's arm was reaching up with his hand spread out and Carr was able to read his palm.

"All of a sudden," he recalls, "I got a sharp feeling in my chest, just like a wave came through me. I thought: 'This guy's gonna have a serious heart attack.'"

When he warned Schwarzenegger,

ANTHONY CARR: "Watch for a sign in the heavens. It will shock the whole world," says prominent Toronto psychic who also predicts the Leafs will win the Stanley Cup in 2001.

Carr says, the actor was stunned.

"He had a huge hole in his aortic valve — a congenital heart defect — and no one knew he had it but him."

Schwarzenegger subsequently underwent elective surgery in 1997 to repair the valve.

Carr includes Canadian movie megastar Jim Carrey on his list of predictions for 2001, saying the rubber-faced comic will make "lavish contributions" to homeless shelters and the poor in Toronto.

"He was a Cabbagetown kid," Carr notes. "He doesn't forget where he came from."

Carrey is "eternally paranoid" about losing his fame and fortune, Carr says, and the Hollywood star feels compelled to share his wealth, lest he become "overwhelmed by guilt over his success."

So much for the good news. Carr is also picking up bad vibes from the heavens. He predicts a "great economic crash" early in the year, as the euro becomes worthless and the Canadian dollar slips downward.

His advice is to stay calm and play it safe. "Don't spend any money, don't invest — keep it in the bank. Don't panic."

If you have stocks, he adds, don't start selling. "Not only does haste make waste but greed makes waste."

His advice on life and love? "Let your instincts be your guide. They will always tell you the way to go."

Other Carr predictions for 2001:

- The Leafs will win the Stanley Cup.
- The Argos will prevail in the Grey Cup and the Blue Jays will take the Local boy makes good

We weren't surprised to read — on the Web and in usually reliable publications — a bogus prediction supposedly made by Nostradamus about the terrorist attacks on New York. We were still embarrassed that we bought an earlier phony prophecy attributed to the 16th-century soothsayer about the U.S. electing a "village idiot" as President.

Then we recalled a Star story about Toronto psychic Anthony Carr, which ran last New Year's Eve, in which he foresaw an imminent "cataclysmic cosmic event."

"Watch for a sign in the heavens. It will shock the whole world. It could be like a bolt of lightning or in the form of a UFO — a mighty astronaut" and would "put the fear of God into us," writer Carola Vyhnak quoted him as saying.

"What I feel for the world is a great revelation, as if the entire population is coming to its collective senses. It's as though we realize we have to do something before it's too late," Carr continued.

The revelation would herald a return to old-fashioned values in which more people marry and stay together, he added. "The 'me' syndrome will be gone. We'll help each other and band together for protection and for the sake of survival of the human race." Yikes.

Jacob Mendlovic asked why no psychic foresaw the events of Sept. 11. Anthony Carr was nearly bang on in his prediction

Travolta, 46, forbade soccer star-turned-actor Vinnie Jones, 35, from being best man for the singer's movie director groom, Guy Ritchie, 32, so Jones could finish making a movie Travolta is directing in America.

John Travolta

Jones expects to earn $2.25 million for his role in Swordfish, for which Travolta is also a co-star. But when Jones asked for time off to stand up for Ritchie, Travolta reportedly railed: "You can't go. We've got a movie to make."

With 48 hours' warning, Ritchie had to find another pal to fill the role in the star-studded wedding at Skibo Castle in Scotland. And neither Madonna nor Ritchie could get Travolta on the phone to negotiate on the nuptials.

Jones ended up sending a video of himself toasting the couple, which was played on a giant monitor during the service.

Not good enough, says The Material Bride.

"John Travolta's ruined my wedding," Madonna told a pal. "And I'll never forgive him."

"But I'll get him back. And I hope he remembers these words — payback's a bitch."

2001 PREDICTIONS

ROYAL scandal. A woman president or vice president. Political and economic upheaval. Miraculous cures and murderous disease. Death by natural disaster and terrorism.

All this and more has been revealed to a foremost psychic while peering into the future for National EXAMINER readers. Here are the predictions from world-famous prognosticator Anthony Carr for 2001 and beyond:

■ Hillary Clinton will become the first U.S. woman vice president or president by 2008.

■ Prince Charles will publicly turn his back on the British royal throne for emotional reasons, opening the way for someone else, but not Princes William or Harry — possibly Andrew!

■ Former Yugoslavian dictator Slobodan Milosevic will attempt a vicious military coup, but to no avail. He'll eventually be executed for crimes against humanity.

■ The Empire State Building explodes from a terrorist bomb! Arab terrorists — who wear the red turban and whose emblem is "a star and crescent moon" — are responsible for this futile attempt to demoralize America.

■ An earthquake and a tidal wave hit Boston, Mass., of all places.

■ The tag-team of Gorby and Boris will initiate a world power play in 2001. Russia, beware of Mikhail Gorbachev and Boris Yeltsin.

■ Bulgaria explodes! I see crushing khaki tanks on whose sides are emblazoned a great red star.

■ A horrific Spanish flu-like virus will sweep around the world, destroying more human life than did the previous two World Wars. It will originate in India. I believe Spanish flu-infected human tissue still preserved from the early 1900s will be the culprit.

■ Residents around The Three Mile Island nuclear plant in Pennsylvania will hold their collective breath while news of another leak goes public. The narrow escape will force new safety regulations for nuclear power plants across America and, I might add, Canada. Toronto, take note!

■ Tina Sinatra, in her new book My Father's Daughter, insults Frank's widow Barbara. They come to blows in a clash on Larry

■ Former Spin City star Michael J. Fox will be completely cured of Parkinson's disease even before two years have passed.

Medium is messenger

Toronto psychic who foretold 9/11 events predicts bin Laden's surrender

BY CAROLA VYHNAK
TORONTO STAR

The Sept. 11 terrorist attacks should have come as no surprise to Anthony Carr. After all, the psychic predicted the events with — in his words — “dead-on, 100 per cent accuracy.”

The psychic part of him had “seen” it coming when he did his predictions for 2001 in October 2000 and again last August.

“I see a terrible plane crash over New York City,” he wrote. “I see raging fires around the White House in Washington, D.C. A great disaster will strike a major city to create a yawning chasm as earth and buildings topple into eternity.”

Looking at the bigger picture, the east-end psychic and palmist also foresaw a “cataclysmic cosmic event” that would shock the world and “put the fear of God in us.”

Carr derives no satisfaction from being right. “Despite my bravado and glib attitude, they (accurate predictions) shock and frighten me half to death.”

His ability to see the future, he explains, comes from his “third eye.”

“I put myself in an altered state of consciousness — which is really an electrical state — so the cosmos will bombard my antennae.”

Carr then becomes the messenger, taking the images and translating them into words. Those words add up to 30 pages of predictions for 2002, including the fate of Osama bin Laden.

In a “letter” to the terrorist leader, Carr says he “sees” his arms above his head in a posture of surrender. “Then you will suffer a most ignoble death at the hands of those you persecuted.” The “very fatal and final denouement” will occur in mid-February, he says.

More locally, Toronto will be hit by a sizeable earthquake, Carr predicts, and a new provincial leader to replace outgoing Premier Mike

Harris will bring back “real common sense” and return Ontario to an “even keel” in the areas of health, education and help for the homeless.

Prime Minister Jean Chrétien is heading for a shocking scandal involving a wealthy, eccentric woman. The strain of the ensuing media frenzy over the affair will cause him to step down from office. “A real cause célèbre, it’ll be both noble and scandalous, for love or money — or both,” says Carr. Chrétien’s replacement, he adds, will be a woman “of extraordinary kindness.”

On the sports front, the Leafs will win the Stanley Cup in 2002 (oops, Carr predicted that for 2001), but Blue Jays fans will have to wait to 2008 for a World Series victory.

Carr, who counts Hollywood personalities among his clients, devotes 15 pages of predictions to the entertainment scene. Singer Celine Dion, he says, will become so paranoid about flying that she’ll buy and equip her own luxurious train car to travel with her “ailing husband” and young child.

Harry Potter creator J.K. Rowling will be accused of plagiarism by a “green-eyed woman” and will have to defend herself in court. She’ll be vindicated but lacks the wizardry to remove the tarnish from her reputation. So says Anthony Carr — without the aid of a crystal ball.

FUTURE TENSE:

According to Anthony Carr, Prime Minister Chrétien will leave office due to a scandal involving a woman, Celine Dion will be riding the rails with her “ailing husband” René Angélil and baby René-Charles, and Osama bin Laden’s days are numbered at about 45.

To whom it may concern:

I have known Anthony Carr for several years. The first time he did a reading for me, I was amazed. By studying my hand, he could describe character traits, events and experiences in my career and personal life. He was dead on, right down to intimate details a stranger couldn't possibly know.

On another occasion, I sought Mr. Carr's advice on a personal matter. Unable to make a decision on this particular issue, I asked for a reading to help point me in the right direction. Again, his perception and intuition were amazingly accurate and revealed the true picture in crystal clear terms.

On a professional level, I have written two stories about Mr. Carr's predictions for the world that have been published in The Toronto Star. The first, on Dec. 31, 2000, included his forecast about a "cataclysmic cosmic event" that would shake the world and herald a return to old-fashioned values. The events of Sept. 11 would certainly fill that bill.

The second story we published, on Dec. 30, 2001, documented other predictions he had made relating to Sept. 11. In October, 2000 and August, 2001, he predicted "a terrible plane crash over New York City." "A great disaster will strike a major city to create a yawning chasm as earth and buildings topple into eternity," he wrote in his annual list of predictions. Mr. Carr also warned of "raging fires around the White House in Washington, D.C."

To whom it may concern,

Anthony Carr has been an annual New Year's Day guest on CFTO News for over 10 years now. As the Producer of CFTO News at 11:30 p.m., Anthony has at times astounded our staff with his predictions for the future. Although we have often kept his on-air appearances focused on the lighter side of life and entertainment, Anthony has always come equipped with a detailed and lengthy list of his predictions for the coming year. We were somewhat amazed last year in the aftermath of September 11th, when we checked the documents he had left with us and found that Anthony had predicted, "The Empire State Building explodes from a terrorist bomb! In a futile attempt to demoralize America, Arab terrorists, who wear the red turban and whose flag is a star and crescent moon, are responsible" and on another point wrote, "I see raging fires around the White House in Washington D.C." They are not exact visions of the future, but a never-the-less very accurate vision of the destruction and violence that would soon strike America.

On an earlier occasion Anthony left me with his annual list of predictions, in which he predicted a violent end for Dodi Al Fayed and Princess Diana. " ... Dodi will suffer a violent fatal denouement either by boat or vehicular accident. " This past January, in his predictions for 2002, Anthony correctly predicted the end was near for Princess Margaret. On still another occasion, a few years back, I remember being struck by Anthony's prediction for the sudden onset of a heart condition for Arnold Schwarzenegger, which came to pass within a year, at a time when Schwarzenegger was seemingly at the apex of his physical power.

To whom it may concern:

I have known Anthony Carr for over 15 years. He has never ceased to amaze me with his ability to predict the future. Over the years, Anthony has made many spot-on predictions. They include the heart problems suffered by Arnold Schwarzenegger, an impending tragedy facing Princess Diana and her playboy lover Dodi Fayed, Bill Clinton's ultimate disgrace after an affair with a "very young woman," drug problems for Whitney Houston.

They all were forecast long before the actual events came to pass.

Last year, Anthony predicted "raging fires around the White House in Washington, D.C." and a "cataclysmic event" in a major U.S. city. The terrible events of September 11 were clearly in his mind.

On a number of occasions, he has given me insights into my own future that have come to pass.

I can state unequivocally that he is the most accurate psychic that I have ever interviewed.

To Whom It May Concern:

Anthony Carr has been a regular consultant with American Media Incorporated for a number of years. He is an important contributor to our family of publications including Star Magazine.

Mr. Carr has supplied this paper with numerous stories on celebrities including Sylvester Stallone, whose palms he read with uncanny accuracy. He has also predicted the undoing of Osama Bin Laden and his Taliban and al-Qaeda fighters for Star.

Most spectacularly Mr. Carr predicted "a terrible plane crash over New York City" in our papers, foreseeing the September 11th tragedies.

He is without question number one in his field and is the first person we at Star call when writing stories regarding predication or palmistry stories.

To Whom It May Concern,

I am a writer for the National Enquirer and have been for the past 20 years. In my job, I have come across many psychics, and Anthony Carr is certainly one of the most accurate.

He has predicted countless events, among them, the death of Princess Diana, the fact that Sylvester Stallone's daughter would be born with heart problems, and, most impressively, the events of 9/11/01.

In our business, we have occasion to deal with many people who claim to have psychic ability, but, as we have all learned, very few actually have a proven track record, as well as an impressive gift of seeing into the future and predicting it.

I sincerely recommend that you consider Anthony Carr to be a legitimate and proven psychic. He has a track record that is envied by all the others who are claiming to be psychic.

Sincerely,

Former Yugoslavian dictator, Slobodan Milosevic will attempt a vicious military coup, but to no avail. He'll eventually be executed for crimes against humanity.

Harlingen, Texas, home of the famous Iwo Jima statue of U.S. Marines raising the American flag over that most costly South Pacific island (in terms of lives lost: 6,821 Marines and Naval personnel) will unfortunately be hit by a ferocious hurricane, then a tornado, while a coastal tidal wave the size of the Empire State Building sweeps across the nearest coastline.

Poppies will grow on the grave of WW II Iwo Jima veteran Ira Hayes, an Arizona Pima tribe native, as a symbol of the innocence of his soul.

➡ The Empire State Building explodes from a terrorist bomb! In a futile attempt to demoralize America, Arab terrorists, who wear the red turban and whose emblem is a "star and crescent moon," are responsible. ✓

➡ Sabotage of the D.C. senate building (white dome) -- black smoke and fire! ✓

Very severe earthquakes and fires in Southern California -- this coming summer.

Earthquake and tidal wave to hit Boston, Mass; of all places.

A fatal outbreak of "Mad Cow Disease" strikes Toronto, moves across Canada, then spreads quickly to the U.S. where it wreaks havoc in America.

The outrageous murder of Brazil's street kids will come to a halt when world pressure and a new hero following in the footsteps of the late saviour of children, Yves de Roussan, forces new protective legislation.

➡ The Mideast will explode like a roman candle in 2001, drawing all nations ever closer to WW III! ✓

- 92. Frank Sinatra will begin talking about his late mother, as a new awareness evolves; likewise, Perry Como.

ANTHONY CARR'S 101 PREDICTIONS FOR 1996 – AND BEYOND!

1. As I have predicted for years, Quebec is now “defacto” gone from Canada. Before the next federal election, Canada will have separated. Quebec is gone from the Canadian scene; by this time next year, they'll be even gone! Jacques Parizeau will “pay” dearly for his treasonous act. The former Quebec Premier faces grave health crisis; a great “light” above and around his head. Jacques Parizeau, like the former Quebec premier Rene Levesque – and the very nearly late Bloc Quebecois Party Leader and soon-to-be Quebec Premier and former Federal Leader of the Opposition, Lucien Bouchard, will suffer a similar Fate – only worse! – simply because his dream to destroy Canada will succeed!
2. Upon Quebec's declaration of sovereignty, the United States will immediately step in to take a very firm “foothold”. I see American dollars falling from the skies into Quebec.
3. As I predicted before, billions and billions of dollars will pour into Canada through casinos, movie making and the hospitality industry – creating thousand upon thousands of jobs. Canada will enjoy a three-year financial boom.
4. Americans will have a new and improved medical plan for everyone, a cross between Canadian socialized medicine and the current American insurance plan.
5. ➔ A successful bombing of the Staten Island Ferry! New York City will be rocked by multiple disasters; riots, earthquakes, chemical spills, and successful bombing. ✓
6. Stately homes will once again grace the Toronto Islands. There will be no connecting link from the mainland (i.e. tunnel or bridge).
7. Toronto Mayor, Barbara Hall, will wear her official Chain-Of-Office to greet an incredibly famous figure: U.S. President Bill Clinton!
8. Clinton pulls off the impossible! He's re-elected!
9. A tremendous explosion and fire beneath Toronto's Union Station – Esplanade District! A terrible underground explosion and fire beneath the Esplanade! (Methane gas?) Sudden earthquake will hit Toronto! Toronto, in spite of everything, will prosper financially, socially and culturally.

"THE AMERICANS" (A Canadian's Opinion...)

BY
SINCLAIR

The United States dollar took another pounding on German, French and British exchanges this morning, hitting the lowest point ever known in West Germany. It has declined there by 41% since 1971 and this Canadian thinks it is time to speak up for the Americans as the most-generous and possibly the least-appreciated people in all the world.

As long as sixty years ago, when I first started to read newspapers, I read of floods on the Yellow River and the Yangtse. Well, who rushed in with men and money to help? The Americans did. That's who.

They have helped control floods on the Nile, the Amazon, the Ganges and the Niger. Today, the rich bottomland of the Mississippi is under water and no foreign land has sent a dollar to help. Germany, Japan and, to a lesser extent, Britain and Italy, were lifted out of the debris of war by the Americans who poured in billions of dollars and forgave other billions in debts. None of those countries is today paying even the interest on its remaining debts to the United States.

When the franc was in danger of collapsing in 1956, it was the Americans who propped it up and their reward was to be insulted and swindled on the streets of Paris. And I was there; I saw that.

When distant cities are hit by earthquake, it is the United States that hurries in to help. . . Managua Nicaragua is one of the most recent examples. So far this spring, 59 American communities have been flattened by tornadoes. Nobody has helped.

The Marshall Plan. . . the Truman Policy. . . all pumped billions upon billions of dollars into discouraged countries. And now newspapers in those countries are writing about the decadent war-mongering Americans.

Now. . . I'd like to see just one of those countries that is gloating over the erosion of the United States dollar build its own airplanes.

Come on, now you. . . let's hear it! Does any country in the world have a plane to equal the Boeing Jumbo Jet, the Lockheed Tristar or the Douglas 10? If so, why don't they fly them? Why do all international lines except Russia fly American planes? Why does no other land on earth even consider putting a man or a woman on the moon?

You talk about Japanese technocracy and you get radios. You talk about German technocracy and you get automobiles. You talk about American technocracy and you find men on the moon, not once, but several times. . . and safely home again. You talk about scandals and the Americans put theirs right in the store window for everybody to look at. Even the draft dodgers are not pursued and hounded. They're right here on our streets, in Toronto; most of them. . . unless they are breaking Canadian laws. . . are getting American dollars from Ma and Pa at home to spend up here.

When the Americans get out of this bind. . . as they will. . . who could blame them if they said 'the Hell with the rest of the world'. Let someone else buy the bonds. Let somebody else build or repair foreign dams or design foreign buildings that won't shake apart in earthquakes.

When the railways of France and Germany and India were breaking down through age, it was the Americans who rebuilt them. When the Pennsylvania Railroad and the New York Central went broke, nobody loaned them an old caboose. Both of them are still broke. I can name to you 5,000 times when the Americans raced to the help of other people in trouble.

Can you name to me even one time when someone else raced to the Americans in trouble? I don't think there was outside help even during the San Francisco earthquake.

Our neighbours have faced it alone and I'm one Canadian who is damned tired of hearing them kicked around. They will come out of this thing with their flag high. And when they do, they are entitled to thumb their noses at the lands that are gloating over their present troubles.

I hope Canada is not one of these. But there are many smug, self-righteous Canadians. And finally, the American Red Cross was told at its 48th Annual Meeting in New Orleans this morning that it was broke.

This year's disasters. . . with the year less than half over. . . has taken it all and nobody. . . but nobody. . . has helped.
