

ANTHONY CARR PREDICTION

TORONTO, ONT., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1992

We predict Toronto psychic Anthony Carr will appear on CFTO's The Shirley Show today.

And, it's safe to predict, the internationally-known seer and palm reader will be discussing some of his 101 "fearless forecasts" for 1993.

Among them are our Top 20 Carr eye-catchers:

1. UFOs will be seen en masse.
2. An entire hockey team will be wiped out in a plane crash.

3. A Disney World will be built in Toronto.

4. A strong woman from "hill" country will rise up to become Canada's prime minister;

5. The Salman Rushdie incident will lead to war.

6. Earthquakes will rock New York, Boston and Toronto.

7. Another big step in the halting of AIDS.

8. The astounding discovery of the central hub of Lost Atlantis;

9. 1993 will see the Great Pyramids begrudgingly giving up more secrets.

10. Johnny Carson, whom two years ago I said would retire, will return.

11. Conscription in Canada and the U.S. will return.

12. Fidel Castro will be removed.

13. Milton Berle, believe it or not, will make a big comeback.

Twitter and Facebook became a forum for mourning Wednesday as the spread of the plane crash. Most dramatic was a tweet from a player who first believed to be a victim. Right behind it, though, were the former teammates and others close to the players in the hockey world who were hit with yet another shock of losing one of their own.
