

STARGAZER 2022

Predictions & Prophecies by Anthony Carr

Fulfilled Predictions!

“Actor ALEC BALDWIN is labouring under the delusion that he's a tough guy. But soon he's going to pick on the wrong guy (Fate), who will hit him so hard it will knock out his whole family!” (*First prophesied: STARGAZER: Predictions & Prophecies 2014; to wit: “Baldwin was never supposed to fire gun according to 'Rust' script!” November 17, 2021, National Post.)

• • •

“JAMES GANDOLFINI of the Sopranos hit series has become so overweight that his friends are now calling him fat-fella, instead of good-fella! Serious health problems ahead – even death!” (*First prophesied: STARGAZER: Predictions & Prophecies 2005; to wit: “Actor James Gandolfini dead at age 51” June 20, 2013, CNN.)

Predictions For 2022!

ALEC BALDWIN's career turns to “rust” because of the tragic incident on the movie set, so eponymously named. And I don't mean the rust which must have undoubtedly quickly appeared in his shorts! Now he's through, finished – kabut! Bad tempered Baldwin has made lots of enemies over the years.

• • •

TIGER WOODS gets hitched yet again! This time to a woman as licentious and promiscuous as he!

• • •

TOM CRUISE gets happily married one last time before making a public announcement that forever changes his life! And his face, which seems particularly bloated and blotchy these days, perhaps as a result of ingesting prednisone, a steroid widely used to treat a multitude of ailments. (Or botox?)

• • •

CRUISE will also executively produce the biggest movie bomb since director ED WOOD's horrible horror flick, "Plan 9 From Outer Space," possibly even outdoing Wood's dubious distinction.

• • •

JOE BIDEN croaks on a public dais. (Not like a frog, although that, too, could happen.)

• • •

PRINCE HARRY finesses his way back into the good graces of the Royal Family when wife, MEGHAN, shows an entirely new side that no one – not even her mother – ever saw. But until then, MS. MARKLE still has husband "Hairy" by the short and curlies.

• • •

JENNIFER LOPEZ (J-LO) and new squeeze BEN AFFLECK work together on a new flick adapted from an old flick: "My Friend, Flicka."

• • •

"THE ROCK" comes back to "Fast & Furious" – but at a career cost far too great for any one person to endure!

• • •

O.J. SIMPSON once more is catapulted onto the world stage before his final curtain.

• • •

GWEN STEFANI and BLAKE SHELTON are both caught simultaneously in flagrante delicto – and, as in Monopoly, will be given a free "get out of jail" card, by each other!

• • •

GHISLAINE MAXWELL turns gay during her prison stay (if she isn't already), but ultimately doesn't survive incarceration.

• • •

Aging “Raging Bull” ROBERT DE NIRO is anguished over the emotional and financial roller-coaster ride his estranged – or should that be strange – wife has put him through! But I fear he may tear a page from acquitted alleged wife killer ROBERT BLAKE’s book and push Ms. Hightower – off a high tower!

• • •

BRITNEY SPEARS – now free of her Dad’s (James Spears) conservatorship – soon spins out of control and goes down quicker than the Titanic! She’ll let loose like someone just freed from jail. The money and glamour gone – hastily followed by boy-toy beau, Sam Asghari.... Her body will be found floating face up.

• • •

Her most Serene Majesty, QUEEN ELIZABETH II of Great Britain: – England, Wales and Scotland – will survive many more years. Leukemia? Big deal! Half the world’s population suffer from some form of it.

• • •

BEN AFFLECK goes from Hollywood hunk to Hollywood chunk, as he slowly balloons to 300 pounds!... Maybe he’s preparing for the lead in the remake of “Hindenburg.”

• • •

Former U.S. President DONALD TRUMP should run – not walk – to the nearest doctor who will order him a complete MRI – there being lumps and bumps in his body that quick action may prevent from spreading. But even so, it may already be too late!

• • •

After 25 years, the killer of sweet 6-year-old JONBENET RAMSEY will be apprehended and convicted.... To everybody’s shock!

• • •

BARBARA WALTERS suffers debilitating facial shingles which force her from the public eye. But immediately a lucky strike (not the cigarette), brings to her doorstep a well-known publishing house which advances her mega bucks for her memoirs that eventually make it to Hollywoodland’s big silver screen.

• • •

Iconic singer/actress BARBARA STREISAND attempts a comeback but loses her superstar status by throwing a spectacular wing-ding (temper tantrum) in front of a live audience!... Perhaps symptomatic of early Alzheimer's?

• • •

PRINCE CHARLES explodes when CAMILLA upstages him publicly and indecently!

• • •

BRAD PITT, feeling rather smothered by his bitter half ANGELINA JOLIE, wants out! Although still searching for his soul mate, Brad may not realize that he has already found her, right there in actor JON VOIGHT's daughter, but doesn't realize it.

• • •

MATT LAUER risks losing all – as his womanizing goes right off the rails!

• • •

JACK NICHOLSON – even at his advanced age will be caught with his pants down, quite literally, in a mansion high up in the Hollywood Hills, being spanked by the elderly Ms. Bridgette, the Dominatrix. (...Gives new meaning to the ancient adage, “How's tricks?”)
